1 Introduction

In order to raise general, public awareness of the STORIES project throughout the project duration and publicly promote its objectives and progress a project web site has been developed:

Through the project's web site, information concerning the project and its progress will be presented. It consists a very important medium for calling the attention of potential users and stakeholders to the exciting new developments, technologies and services to be developed.

The web site is not static in the sense that it will be dynamically updated with information as the project progresses and awareness is building up.

The official web address of the site is www.storiesoftomorrow.eu

The ip address is 195.97.86.29

WELCOME

Stories of Tomorrow is conceived as a project to

- a) present storytelling, that enjoys a very long tradition in human history, as a catalyst for the effective interaction between art and STEM disciplines which share similar values, similar themes and similar characteristics towards promoting students' Deeper Learning.
- b) present a new vision for teaching outlining strategies for how teachers' roles and conditions can support and enable deeper learning for students and
- c) to support and facilitate the aforementioned approaches with meaningful digital technologies, such as advanced interfaces, learning analytics, visualization dashboards and Augmented/Virtual reality application.

The screenshot shows the homepage of the 'STORIES of Tomorrow' website. At the top left is the project logo, a stylized orange circle with a rocket and the text 'STORIES of Tomorrow'. To its right is the title 'Stories of Tomorrow' and the subtitle 'Students Visions on the Future of Space Exploration'. A navigation menu includes links for HOME, ABOUT, CONSORTIUM, DELIVERABLES, NEWS, RESOURCES, and CONTACT. The main banner features a child in a cardboard box wearing a rocket backpack, with a red rocket drawing on the wall behind them. The text on the banner reads 'STORIES OF TOMORROW' and 'STUDENTS VISIONS ON THE FUTURE OF SPACE EXPLORATION'. Below the banner is a 'MAIN MENU' with links to Home, About, Consortium, Deliverables, News, Resources, and Contact. A 'WELCOME' section contains a search bar and three bullet points describing the project's goals. A 'NEWS' section shows a post from March 9, 2017, by an administrator, with a photo of a group of people. At the bottom, there are social media icons for Facebook, YouTube, and Twitter, followed by funding information: 'This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation program under grant agreement No. 731872', 'Co-Funded by the EU Horizon 2020', and 'Mottivan @ 2017 | All rights Reserved'. Logos for Horizon 2020 and the European Union are also present, along with a scroll-to-top button.
